Williams Wharf Landing is a 4-acre public access waterfront facility on the East River and State Route 614 in Mathews, VA. Established by Samuel Williams as a trading port and warehouse near the time of the Revolutionary War, Williams Wharf became one of the country's centers of maritime activity in the early 1800s. From 1802 to 1844, more 10,000 vessels called at the East River port. www.mathewslandconservancy.com
